Former Bay St. Louis Pastor Meets Tragic End In Automobile Collision

Right Reverend Monsignor John M. Prendergast, Vicar General of the Diocese of Natchez, Died at Vicksburg Thrown From His Automobile Saturday Afternoon—Died That Night From Concussion of the Brain.

The tragic death of Monsignor J. M. Prendergast, pastor of St. Paul's Catholic Church and vicar general of the Natchez diocese, was a shock to everyone.

Monsignor Prendergast died late Saturday night from injuries received in an automobile collision on Highway 41 between his car and a car driven by Mrs. Chester L. Davenport of St. Clair, Wisconsin, who with her seventeen-month old daughter was en route to Camp Livingston to join her husband, a lieutenant in the 13th Field Artillery.

Came to Bay St. Louis in 1897. Monsignor Prendergast came to Bay St. Louis in 1897 as an assistant pastor at Our Lady of the Gulf Church, and left in 1898 when he went as chaplain in the Spanish American War. In 1899, he went to Canton, Mississippi, and remained there until 1900 when he was again returned to Bay St. Louis. In that same year, he was assigned to the pastorate of the Catholic Church at Gulfport and remained there until 1906 when he was returned to Bay St. Louis as pastor of Our Lady of the Gulf Church and remained here until 1918. During this time, the Church was destroyed by fire and under Father Prendergast's leadership, the present Church and rectory were built at a great sum of money and the parish and its missions flourished under his guidance.

First Mississippian to Enter Priesthood. Father Prendergast is said to be the first native Mississippian to enter the priesthood and was the first resident pastor of a church at Gulfport.

Funeral services were held at 10 A. M. on Tuesday with pontifical requiem mass at St. Paul's Church in Natchez with interment in the Cathedral cemetery and with pallbearers priests from the diocese of Natchez. Bishop R. O. Gerow was celebrant of the mass with Rev. Peter Quinn, deacon; the Rev. John J. O'Reilly, assistant priest; the Rev. Joseph Brunini, master of ceremonies; and the Rev. Joseph Chatham, master of ceremonies. Deacons of honor were the Rev. Hubert Mullen and the Rev. Andrew J. Gmelch. In the office of the dead, the Rev. John J. Burns, the Rev. Hubert Mullen and the Rev. Francis Retzlaff read the lessons from the scriptures. The sermon was delivered by the Right Rev. J. J. O'Brien of Natchez, Chancellor of the diocese. Music for the mass was rendered by the Senior and Junior choirs of the church and the funeral cortege proceeded to St. Mary's Cathedral where services were also held at 2:30 which was attended by all the clergy of Mississippi and hundreds of persons throughout the state.

Monsignor Prendergast was seventy years of age and one of the most prominent and beloved priests in the state of Mississippi.

Sketch and Tribute.

The Vicksburg Post pays the following tribute and sketch of the life of the Monsignor, as follows:

John Mary Prendergast was born in Natchez, Mississippi on January 30, 1871, the son of a distinguished Natchez family. At an early age the talented young boy showed definite inclinations to study for the priesthood. His early training was completed with honors at St. Charles College, Baltimore, Maryland and Jefferson College, Louisiana. As a young man, John Prendergast went to Switzerland, there to continue his studies for the sacred priesthood in the famous University of Fribourg. It was here that Monsignor Prendergast learned to speak French with an eloquence that never failed him. On October 24, 1894, the gifted young priest was ordained in St. Mary's Cathedral at Natchez, the same church in which he was baptized as an infant and as a child received his first Holy Communion.

In the years that followed, Father Prendergast had a varied and colorful career and an early departure from his parish life in the diocese of Natchez. He served as vicar general of the diocese of Natchez, as pastor of St. Paul's Catholic Church at Bay St. Louis, as pastor of Our Lady of the Gulf Church at Gulfport, and as pastor of St. Mary's Cathedral at Natchez.

BAY HIGH-PASS FOOTBALL GAME TO BE HERE FRIDAY NITE

The football game between Pass Christian High and Bay High, previously scheduled for the Pass High Stadium has been changed, due to unforeseen circumstances, to the S. S. C. stadium here, Friday night, October 18th.

Coaches Boyd and Glass have been preparing their squad for this game by sending them through long practices. With both teams looking to this particular game it should prove very interesting and exciting.

"UNDERGROUND" HITS PEAK OF EXCITEMENT AT A. & G. THEATER

The pioneering Warner Bros. are at it again with their powerful new drama of war-time Europe. It is called "Underground," and is scheduled at the A. & G. Theater on Thursday-Friday, October 23-24.

It is the studio's feeling that the daring and highly dramatic nature of story well interlarded with a tender love story and described as "more of the nature of 'Foreign Correspondent' and 'Night Train' than our own 'Confessions of a Nazi Spy'." demanded extreme realism in casting.

Hence, fine artists from abroad rather than Hollywood "name" supporting actors were selected to back up the work of principals Jeffrey Lynn, Kaaren Verne, Mona Maris and Philip Dorn.

The story itself represents pioneering. It is remarkable in that it is said to represent the German people in a very fine and human light, not disparagingly, and to show without propaganda effort what is probably the most dangerous game in the world today, revolutionary movements under dictatorship.

It is fictional and highly dramatic, rather than documentary. The time is from shortly after Dunkirk, until today.

Ole Miss. Will Be Prepared For Maximum Crowd Thanksgiving.

Ole Miss will be prepared to accommodate a maximum crowd at the Thanksgiving football game with Mississippi State this year. To take care of traffic, a new four lane highway is being built by the State Highway Department from the new bridge over Hilliard Cut to the Confederate monument on the University campus. Assisted in the project by Lafayette County, the Highway Department hopes to complete the road in about two weeks.

Besides the new roadway, the east side of Ole Miss' concrete stadium, under construction for over a year, will be completed. According to Professor A. B. Hargis, supervising engineer of buildings and grounds, all necessary material and labor are at hand to finish the structure, which will raise the permanent seating capacity of the stadium to approximately 17,800. Places for 4,000 persons will be provided in the end zones for the Ole Miss State game.

The USDA Defense Board is talking upon the farmers of Mississippi in their all-out national defense efforts, to increase the acreage planted in oats in Mississippi to 238,000 for the 1942 crop. The 1941 oat crop in this state was 159,000 acres, and it is pointed out that immediate action is necessary as right now is the best season of the year for planting oats. The county Defense Boards are urged to investigate local conditions as to the supply of seed oats and to aid in every possible way in securing the best varieties available. Mississippi soil has already proven its adaptability to the growing of this very useful and profitable crop.

Mr. Batson, Chief of the Auditing Department of the State Auditor's office states that between October 1, 1940 and September 30, 1941 complete audits were made of 78 counties and 53 institutions, departments and commissions, and that audits of the counties for 1941 have now commenced. Upon the return of the parade to the College Campus, the inevitable figure of the Rock-A-Chew's opponent was burned in effigy.

On Sunday, at 11 a. m., a large barbecue was held on the College grounds, attended by ex-grads, among whom are many prominent business men in South Mississippi and Louisiana, members of the football squad, members of the Stadelines Club and faculty of the college.

In the afternoon, a large crowd followed the Rock-A-Chew team to the St. Stanislaus Stadium, where they witnessed the third successive victory of the Rock-A-Chew team when they defeated the Catholic High football squad from Donaldsonville in a game which the local boys held from beginning to end, and ending in a score of 41-6, the same brilliant playing which has featured the two previous games, providing the fans with thrills throughout the game.

Chief Ammons U. S. Navy Recruiting Service called at The Echo office Monday A. M., and visited the editor. Chief Ammons wishes to announce Navy Recruiting Station which he has charge of at Bogalusa, La., will be open every Monday and Tuesday. Chief Ammons also has charge of recruiting stations at Baton Rouge, McComb, Miss., and Natchez. The station at McComb, Miss., is open every Thursday; station at Natchez open every Friday; station at Baton Rouge, La., open every day of the week. Vacancies exist in both regular Navy and Navy Reserves.

Chief Ammons wishes to call attention to Class V-6 of the Naval Reserve which the Secretary of the Navy with great far-sightedness has established for the enlistment of men who are considering enlistment in the military service during this emergency.

Vacancies are open for men with trades or special training with base pay as high sometimes as $99 per month, which with all allowances can amount to as much as $170 per month. Also vacancies in this branch of the Naval Reserve for the training of young men who have not a trade in almost every phase of trade and special training that can be imagined.

Secretary of the Navy has established schools in many different states not only so that these men can be trained for the Navy, but in order that when they return to civilian lives after this emergency is over they will be able to get a better job than the average boy and thus be a credit to his neighborhood, reflect great credit on the training offer of the U. S. Navy.

Chief Ammons has over 24 years of military service. During the World War he served in U. S. Army Air Corps in France and England. In January 1919 he enlisted in the U. S. Navy and has served there since. During this time he has served aboard battleships, cruisers, destroyers, gunboats, auxiliary ships and 5 years aboard submarines. He has visited in many countries throughout the world, to name a few, in China, Japan, French Indo China, the Philippines, Guam, Hawaiian, Peru, Colombia, Panama, Cuba, Haiti, Porto Rico, Mexico, Canada, France, England and many others, too numerous to mention.

Chief Ammons is the possessor of two campaign medals World War and Yagotte River and good conduct medal, pin and bar.

He says if he had to do it all over again, he would enlist in the U. S. Navy and if he couldn't get in the Navy, he would enlist in the Marines, Army or Coast Guard. He says he has never seen so many opportunities as are now offered by the U. S. Navy.

Trade training and education that the statistics prove is unequalled anywhere.

Chief Ammons wishes to especially call your attention to the fact that the Bogalusa Recruiting office is open every Monday and Tuesday.

Chief Ammons informs "The Echo" he will be at Weekly Examiner newspaper office, in Biloxi, Monday and Tuesday night to receive applicants and recruits to undergo then and there medical examination. This makes it convenient for prospective Bay St. Louis and other prospective recruits. Call at The Echo office, young man, for book of valuable information. Free and under no obligation.

The ebullient Andy Hardy has finally found something that stops him cold—temporarily. Just out of high school, he has to choose between college and a job and, after the expected man-to-man talk with his dad, takes a month's fling at Manhattan. The adventure results in comedy, tragedy and near-disaster, and certainly will be accepted by Hardy Family fans as one of the best and most entertaining that Mickey Rooney again portrays Andy Hardy, and to the hit. There also is an excellent performance by Judy Garland and an impressive supporting role by one Patricia Dane, a newcomer to pictures, who looks like cinch for bigger things in the future. Andy, pounding New York's pavements in search for a job, finally lands one as office boy in a stocks-and-bonds house. There Miss Dane, a stenographer with gold-digging traits and an ex-husband, fascinates him with her charm and her casual outlook on life. Not until Judy and Andy's father conspire to get him out of her clutches does Andy realize the mistake he was about to make—and which convinces him college, and preparation for the law, is what he wants. EXPRESSIONS OF THANKS AND APPRECIATION FROM A GRATEFUL HEART

Mrs. John N. Stewart has asked that these verses, "From a Grateful Heart," be printed, as they so beautifully express what she feels for the many thoughtful and lovely attentions shown her during her recent illness.

From a Grateful Heart
For hundreds of letters and cards,
The gifts and wires, and flowers,
That found their way to this quiet room
And cheered the painful hours—
I thank you every one.
For all the prayers that you have said
For my recovery
(It's hard to comprehend it all—
Your dear concern in me.)
I thank you every one.
Again the sun is peeping thru,
So I can look ahead,
Enriched by all your kindness,
While lying here in bed
I thank you every one.
